

Workday on the Susie Harwood Cemetery

February 15th and 29th, 2020

It is amazing what a few men can get done in a couple of Saturday s. We a had a good turn out on Saturday the 15th

Allen, Tilman,& Reggie Hatley, Chad Howard (hiding behind) John H. Burluson, JD Burluson, David Almond, Lee Snuggs, ? and Deron Smith

Picture taken before we started working.

Reggie Hatley provide great transportation out to the Cemeter

Chad Howard

David Almond manning a chain saw

John Hoyle Burleson and Allen Hatley in the orange sweat shirt

After we finished on the 15th, the Hatley ladies provided everyone with 2 pots of Chili

L/R Addison, Vickie, and Jennifer

Deron Smith, Reggie Hatley and Trent Morgan

Finishing up on Saturday the 29th

Trent Morgan and Deron Smith

Reggie Hatley

Susie Harwood Cemetery

Workday March 20, 2004

This is the before shot of the Susan Harwood Cemetery, taken 9:00 am Saturday March 20, 2004.

This is the after shot, taken about 3:00 pm. We are a little over half way finished, a great more deal of work to do.

We (John H. and J.D. Burleson) meet with Jim Lowder, he owns the land the cemetery is located on, Reggie Hatley, his two sons Allan and Mathew. Reggie's father J.T. Hatley was also there, 84 years old and still handling a chain saw. John's wife Nancy Burleson came later and took most of the pictures for us. Reggie's wife () brought us some lunch and that hit the spot.

Reggie Hatley on the dozer and Jim Lowder on the tractor. John Hoyle Burleson in the bushes

Reggie's sons Allan

And Mathew Hatley

Dinner is served, Reggie's wife delivered lunch and John H, JD Burselson, and Reggie and his sons Mathew and Allan Hatley

JT Hatley

Here is where I found what I was looking for, the stone for my great-great-grandmother Sarah Harwood, She was Grandpa Billie Burselson's first wife. I was here last year trying to find the stone and because of the growth I was unable to find it.

We had a follow up work day March 27, 2004 and completed the clean up. The area was completely cleared and raked. The workers were, Jim Lowder, J.T., Reggie, Mathew, and Allen, Hatley, Jim Harwood, Mac Hopkins, Jim Morton, and John H, Burselson. We still need to go back and straighten all the stones and I will have a picture of the final results later.

Susie Harwood Cemetery, these pictures were taken April 12, 2004, after two days of work.
We still need one more day to straighten all the stones and finish up.

